

Hotel V meets the following agreements:

- We actively contribute to the development of our profession and the transfer of our knowledge to those wishing to learn the trade.
- We inform our guests and suppliers that we operate with social responsibility.
- We make transparent agreements with guests and suppliers about the quality of our product and how we ensure this quality.
- We determine the social impact of our services and minimize it as much as possible, especially if it involves negative impacts, such as fraudulent practices, intimidation, exploitation, and child labor.
- We safeguard both the continuity of our business and that of the employee, and we provide for contingencies should we face a loss of income.
- We voluntarily contribute to society through donations and sponsorship and/or by volunteering.
- We continually work on reducing our environmental impact and enhancing the sustainability of our business.
- We continuously strive to improve our own procurement process, focusing particularly on goods and services that are sustainable, preferably with an environmental, sustainability, and/or social certification.
